YOGA
REPORT
Venue: Institution Grounds Date: 16-10-2019, 8.30-9.30 am Resource Person: Mr. Chander Prakash Gupta

Summary:

A programme on "Yoga Programme" was conducted on 16th October 2019 on college ground, At the outset of the programme; Ms. Himani Sharma introduced the Yoga Teachers. Yoga has long been known to be a great antidote to stress. Yoga combines many popular stress-reducing techniques, including exercise and learning to control the breath, clear the mind, and relax the body. Program emphasised that establishing a consistent yoga routine is the best way to experience the difference yoga can make. Yoga practitioners suggested that start with a stress management yoga routine that is intended for beginners who think they don't have time for yoga. They also showed demonstration of various asana. The students and teachers performed all the asana.105 students and faculty attended the programme. The undergraduate students and faculty members were benefitted from the programme.

Empathy
REPORT
Venue: Seminar Hall Dept. Of Orthodontics Date: 11-09-2019, 10.00 am-11.00 am Resource Person: Dr Rajiv Ahluwalia

Summary:

A programme on "Empathy" was conducted on 11th September 2019 Seminar Hall Dept. Of Orthodontics, At the outset of the programme; Ms. Drishty Kalra introduced the speaker Dr Rajiv Ahluwalia. Sympathy and empathy, commonly confused with each other, are not the same. Sympathy is a statement of emotional concern while empathy is a reflection of emotional understanding. The applications of empathy are widespread and are especially relevant in fields such as medicine, where the successful treatment of patients depends on effective patient-physician interactions. This program explored the concept of empathy and examines its utility in medicine from the perspective of a dental student. 50 students and faculty attended the programme. The audience was benefitted from the programme.

Leadership and management
REPORT
Venue: Lecture theatre Date: 17-1-2019, 10.00 am-11.30 am Resource Person: Ms Sujata Chhabra

Summary:

A programme on "Leadership and management" was conducted on 17th January 2019 in lecture theatre 2, At the outset of the programme; Ms. Aishwarya, BDS student, introduced the speaker Ms Sujata Chhabra. She addressed the gathering and explained that Leadership and management are the terms that are often considered synonymous. But people often fail to understand that leadership is an essential part of effective management. This comprehensive program emphasised that remarkable leadership behaviour stresses upon building an environment in which each and every employee develops and excels. 108 students and faculty attended the programme. The students were benefitted from the programme.

ETHICAL STANDARDS OF BUSINESS

REPORT

Venue: Seminar Hall Dept. Of Orthodontics Date: 20-09-2018, 10.00 am-11.00 am
Resource Person: Dr Rajiv Ahluwalia

Summary:

A programme on "Ethical Standards of Business" was conducted on 20th September 2018 in Seminar Hall Dept. Of Orthodontics, Nupur Yadav , BDS Student ,introduced the speaker Dr Rajiv Ahluwalia. He addressed the students and elaborated on the importance of maintaining ethical standards in dental practice. He explained about the moral obligations of a dental surgeon towards the society. The program highlighted that compassion, competence and autonomy are main components of dental ethics but not exclusive to dental practice. However, the practice of Dentistry being a part of healthcare, requires dentists to exemplify these values to a higher degree than in other occupations

The attendees benefitted from the program through understanding the ethical ways of practicing in dentistry that can be beneficial to both the doctor and the patient. And be aware of the rights of the patients.

55 students and faculty attended the programme and found it to be useful.

INTERPERSONAL SKILLS AND EMPATHY

REPORT

Venue: Lecture theatre 2 Date: 27-2-2018, 10.00 am-11.30 am

Resource Person: Ms. Sujata Chhabra

Summary:

A programme on "Interpersonal skills and empathy" was conducted on 27thFebruary 2018 in lecture theatre 2. At the outset of the programme, Mr. Piyush Gadhok introduced the speaker, Dr Sujata Chhabra. She addressed the audience on the importance of developing professional communication skills, emphasising on empathy which is an interpersonal skill. Empathic skills are targeted towards identification and use of emotions in the workplace to maintain a healthy and happy working environment.

Attendees learnt about the ability to manage disruptive emotions and impulses that can in turn, harm their professional relations and hamper the work-place balance.

92 students and faculty attended the programme.
